

Spring Farm Tours

Saturdays on
March 20 April 17 May 15
10 am to 1 pm

(Last tour starts at 12:30 pm)

Visit the animals in their pens and learn about homestead farming during the annual Deer Hollow Farm Tours.

Meet our new farm babies: a calf, goats, piglets, lambs, and chicks. Spend some time with the cow, pigs, goats, rabbits, sheep, ducks and chickens. Walk through our large vegetable garden and century-old farm buildings.

Admission: $5
Children under 2 Free
All proceeds support the Farm

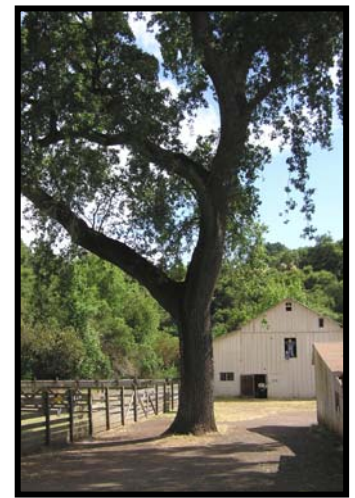

Sponsored by the non-profit
Friends of Deer Hollow Farm, Tours are 45 minutes and conducted in small groups led by trained docents. Tours include the award-winning short film about Deer Hollow Farm "Lessons of the Land." The Farm's new Nature Center will also be open, and the Friends booth.

Friends will have available for sale: T-shirts, plant and animal ID cards, bird houses, photo note cards, mugs, water bottles, and hand-embroidered sweatshirts.

Directions: Take 280 to Foothill Expressway, go south to Cristo Rey Drive. Turn right and follow signs to the park. It's a level 1-mile walk from the parking lot to the farm. Groups of 10 or more should make reservations via e-mail at info@fodhf.org.

Deer Hollow Farm is a working homestead farm and educational center in the Los Altos foothills amid the 3,800-acre Rancho San Antonio Open Space District Preserve. The Farm is funded by the City of Mountain View, Santa Clara County, Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District, and Friends of Deer Hollow Farm. Friends is a non-profit, tax exempt 501(c)(3) corporation supporting Deer Hollow Farm's educational program. For more information about Friends, visit our website at www.fodhf.org.
